 Timed with International Women's Day and synchronized with other similar events in main capitals of the World - London, New York, Mexico, Panama, Paris, Reykjavik, Sao Paulo - the week-long event #HeForShe #ArtsWeekBangkok takes place from 8th to 15th March 2017 in Bangkok, Thailand. The event is organised by UN Women and aims to raise public awareness - thought arts and culture - of the multiple forms of gender inequality women continue to face around the world, and to mobilize broad support for shifting culture to a more gender equal society, where the participation of men and boys as agents of change is crucial. There will be a number of initiatives related to arts and culture that will bring gender equality to the forefront of the public sphere. Different featuring speakers that embody the vision of #UNWomen and the spirit of HeForShe will participate of these events in the heart of the city, and inspire the community to shift culture positively. A 4-day film festival will be celebrated in Sfw Cinema @ Central World, a number of exhibits, screenings, panels discussions and performances will be showcased in Bacc หอศิลป์วัฒนธรรมแห่งกรุงเทพมหานคร and Chulalongkorn University. Further information: download Press Release English AW and programme Programme AW If you enjoyed the C360 article about New Cambodian Artists, the Siem Reap contemporary dance group will be performing at BACC Bangkok Art and Culture Centre.
