Dance Festival

Guangdong Modern Dance Festival, 24-29 July, under the direction of Chinese dance pioneer Willy Tsao, is widely regarded the most important international contemporary dance event in China, featuring world-class performances and avant-garde contemporary creations. The Festival enhances cultural exchanges, breaks down barriers between arts and creative trends and has grown into a hub of Chinese dance development. Check out the PROGRAMME for this year's festival, including artists and works from China, Korea, Singapore, Japan A Festival for International Curators This year, many international festival curators, directors and guests have expressed interest in attending the Festival to witness the development of modern dance in China and to seek Chinese artistic partners.
