Market | early bird registration

10th Australian Performing Arts Market (APAM) takes place in Adelaide 26 Feb - 1 Mar 2012. Register at the early bird rate till December 12th to meet the most important performing arts presenters and producers in one place.

APAM presents Australia's best new performing arts. Over 40 excerpt and full length performances ready to tour. Pitch sessions for new work in development, forums, workshops and On Display arts exhibit booths. Network and connect with the 600 artists and programmers from around the globe who come together for APAM to discover new artists, find new collaborators and meet with fellow professionals during Adelaide's famous festival time. APAM is presented during late summer at the Adelaide Festival Centre in South Australia, alongside Australia's leading summer festivals, Adelaide Fringe and Adelaide Festival. The perfect environment for a stimulating performing arts market; you can network, do serious business and see more than 40 full length or excerpt performances within five days. Early Bird Registration rate applies for payment received on or before 12 December 2011
