Casa Asia in Barcelona presents a concert with a repertoire of popular music from the Philippines. Philippines is a country with a mixture of cultures that reflects its historical past at the same time it has originated a very peculiar identity. The great diversity of its folkloric music shows the richness of the influence of Spanish and oriental rhythms. With this concert, we propose a musical journey that will help us know more about these Asian islands. The concert will include a repertoire of popular Philippine music (The Flower of Manila, Pandanguhan, Maalaala Mo Kaya and other traditional songs). Performers: Bernard Milan, Philippine tenor Ferdinand Bambico, pianist Juana Marina Gómez, pianist Eugeniu Casimov, violinist
