Art Network launches Mount Merapi appeal

Following the volcanic eruption of Mount Merapi in Java, the Indonesia Contemporary Art Network iCAN in Yogyakarta is raising funds to help bring clean water and sanitation to survivors.

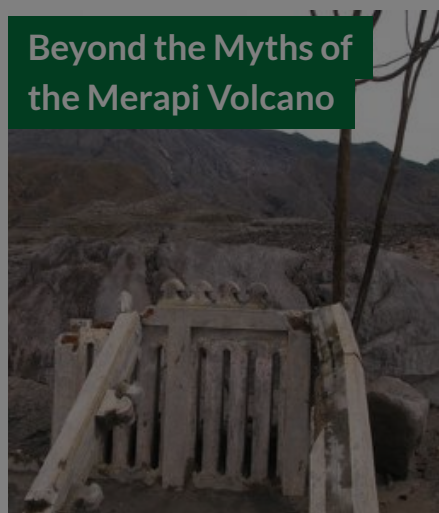

Studio Biru is a working group of iCAN to help survivors of mount Merapi's eruption. The focus at this moment is to offer clean water and sanitation system for survivor shelters. It is called the 100 Water Tanks Project.

For more information and to donate to the appeal, see the website.
