culture360.ASEF.org is pleased to announce a new updated Mobility Funding Guide for Malaysia researched in partnership with Cultural Economy Development Agency \(Cendana\). This new guide, the 5th edition since 2012, offers a comprehensive list of public and private organisations that are funding cultural mobility to and from Malaysia. It also includes a special section on funding specifically for the Malaysian sector.

From 2018, ASEF has initiated a new approach for the Asian Guides that is involving local content partners in the research process. It lists international, national and local resources, both public and private in most artistic and cultural disciplines. The Guide also lists a few additional national sources of funding open only to the Malaysian sector.
