PAMS Performing Arts Market in Seoul

Registration is open for PAMS Performing Arts Market in Seoul (7-12 October), being held alongside SPAF Seoul Performing Arts Festival (7 October - 4 November).

The programme includes performances, booth exhibition, information sessions and international networking opportunities.

PAMS Choice, the PAMS official showcase, introduces outstanding works of performing art by Korean artists, highlighting contemporary trends and celebrating artistic virtuosity. Selected annually in an open competition by a review panel that includes international experts, PAMS Choice finalists win the chance to be featured for the duration of PAMS and promoted at various international performing arts events.

Alongside a high quality programme of performance from Korea, an international showcase (selected through open call) includes 5 performances with companies and artists from France, UK, Sweden, Spain and Canada.
