The Asian Arts Theatre at the Asian Culture Complex in Gwanju, Korea presents a call for international collaborative performing arts projects from applicants in Asia or on Asian themes.

As part of the Asian Culture Complex (ACC) in Gwanju due for completion in 2014, the Asian Arts Theatre encourages collaborative partnerships between national and international artists through its Project Development Initiative launched in 2010.

After receiving 71 proposals from 13 countries, 3 projects were recently chosen by a panel of 15 professionals from various art backgrounds.

Asian Arts Theatre at the Asian Culture Complex is delighted to present the 2nd year of Project Development Initiative to continue to build collaborative relationship with wide range of national and international artists, and to prepare an artistic and creative environment for the ACC's opening in 2014 and its succeeding paths.

Asian Arts Theatre is accepting proposals from ideas to all phases of a project which are contemporary performing art-based works that reflect or embody Asian values, cultures and issues. The selected outstanding projects will be given a financial support to develop their work further and to participate in the co-sketch and pitch session. Also, these projects have possibility of commission to complete their work and premiere at the Asian Arts Theatre.
