 dance-box-maizuru

Dance Box's residency program in Kobe, Japan is seeking artists, scholars and curators who pursue work in the field of dance and body movement to apply for experimental, process-based residencies starting October 2014.

Dance Box

The DANCE BOX residency programs are implemented in cooperation with our partners Art Theater dB KOBÉ, Studio dB Kobe, and Maizuru RB (Yashima art port). We encourage on experimentation and the process rather than focusing on the end result of the artists' production.

Residencies last 80 days: October 1 - December 19 2014 (indicative dates)

Eligibility details:

- Applicants must be non-Japanese

- An artist doesn't need to be a dancer or a choreographer. Depending on a program or concept of research, we are interested in people who are working/researching about body-movements; performing arts and we are hoping for applicants who are doing research related to those fields.

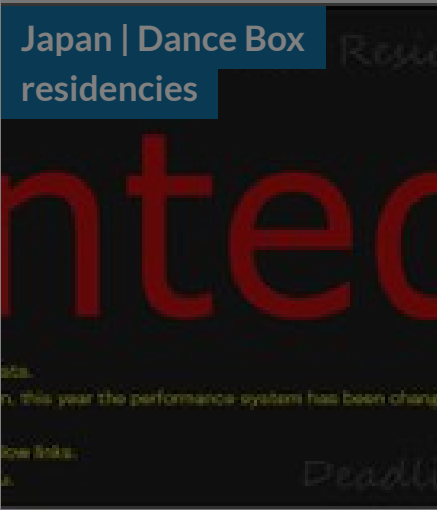

- The final presentation of residence research is expected to be lecture, installations, form of exhibitions using video, or performance form.

The application deadline is 10th July 2014.
