European cultural mobility grants pilot programme

i-Portunus

i-Portunus is a pilot project that will test different approaches to supporting short-term mobility of artists and culture professionals between European countries. The first call for applications for cultural mobility grants is open - eligible applicants are residing in a Creative Europe country*.

Between April and September 2019, i-Portunus will issue three Calls for Applications, providing support for 350-500 short-term (15-85 days), international mobilities of artists active in the fields of the performing or visual arts and residing in a Creative Europe country. These mobilities must have a specific and well-defined objective, such as to develop an international collaboration, to engage in a production-oriented residency or in professional development, to present work in another country or to develop projects with local communities in the destination country.

Current Call
