Award:entries invited

[caption id="attachment_6220" align="alignright" width="175" caption="International Photography Award 2010"][/caption]

Photographers from all over the world are invited to enter in two categories for the British Journal of Photography's, "International Photography Award". Multiple entries can be made.

BJP's International Photography Award has no theme. Photographs can be captured in any format, and in any style or genre. Anyone can enter, from the UK or abroad. The only criteria are fantastic images in two categories - a coherent body of work and a stunning single image.
