opportunity residence

Japan Government International Invitation Program for Animation Artists - “Animation Artist in Residence Tokyo 2012-2013” offers residencies for three outstanding young animation artists from around the world.

This project, organized by the Agency for Cultural Affairs (Bunka-cho / Government of Japan), is an artist in residence program which aims to provide three outstanding young animation artists from around the world with an opportunity to come to Tokyo and create new works while directly interacting with Japanese animation culture. In doing so, we aim to promote both the creation of excellent works of animation and a better understanding of Japanese culture.

Duration of the program: 70 days between December 2013 and March 2013

Support provided

1. Travel expenses
2. Living allowance
3. Travel insurance
4. Rental accommodation (including workspace)Location: Tokyo
5. Materials stipend (within limits)
6. Expert assistance
7. Opportunity to present finished work
8. Opportunities to interact with Japanese creators

Program summary

1. Education/training: participants will be given various opportunities including the chance to visit animation studios and take part in seminars at visual arts schools.
2. Workshops: participants will receive periodic assistance and instruction from experienced Japanese animators at every stage of their project.
3. Creation of a new work: participants will begin a new work while in Japan and present the finished work or one part of a work in progress at the end of their stay.
