ARCUS Research

Call for artists, researchers, writers, and practitioners in the cultural field

ARCUS Research is a new residency program, starting in June 2022, based at ARCUS residency centre in Japan. This is a self-funded program that offers an uninterrupted time and contemplative environment for creative experimentation, in-depth fieldwork, and research for practitioners and professionals in art and other cultural fields, including artists, curators, researchers, university educators, doctoral candidates, or writers.

The program provides participants from around the world with valuable time and space to reflect, unwind, and nurture the creative process.

Located around an hour from Tokyo and a half hour from Tsukuba City, known for hosting one of the largest accumulations of science and technology institutes in the world, ARCUS Research allows participants to come into contact with the contemporary art scene and leading research institutions, as well as devote themselves to their creative endeavors in a calm environment.
