Animation Artist in

Residence programme 2014 | open call

 animation

This project, organized by the Agency for Cultural Affairs (Bunka-cho / Government of Japan), is an artist in residence program which aims to provide three outstanding young animation artists from around the world with an opportunity to come to Tokyo and create new works while directly interacting with Japanese animation culture. In doing so, we aim to promote both the creation of excellent works of animation and a better understanding of Japanese culture.

Duration of the program: 70 days between January 7th and March 17th 2014

Support provided

1. Travel expenses
2. Living allowance
3. Travel insurance
4. Rental accommodation (including workspaces)

- 4. Rental accommodation (including workspace)
- 5. Location: Tokyo
- 6. Expert assistance
- 7. Opportunity to present finished work
- 8. Opportunities to interact with Japanese creators

Program summary

- 1. Education/training: participants will give reports on the progress of their work being created as part of the program and will receive guidance from accomplished Japanese animators/experts on a regular basis.
- 2. Visits/exchange events: participants will visit animation studios and participate in exchange events with artists and students enrolled in art programs at educational institutions.
- 3. Creation of a new work: participants will begin a new work while in Japan and present the finished work or one part of a work in progress at the end of their stay.

Conditions of participation
