proposals

International call for performance proposals for the Hi Seoul Festival in Korea, held in May 2012 - non-verbal performance including street theatre, mime, plays, visual theatre, circus, dance and music invited to apply.

The Hi Seoul Festival being the world-class performing arts festival, which showcases multiplicity of Seoul to the world, is looking for nonverbal performing arts to be presented at the festival. Any nonverbal performance genres, including plays, dances, music and so on, which go beyond languages and communicate with all, are encouraged to participate in Hi Seoul Festival.

When to apply: by the end of February, 2012

How to apply: by sending an email (proposals and video materials) to bookstore@sfac.or.kr. Please send materials that can explain the work including video materials.

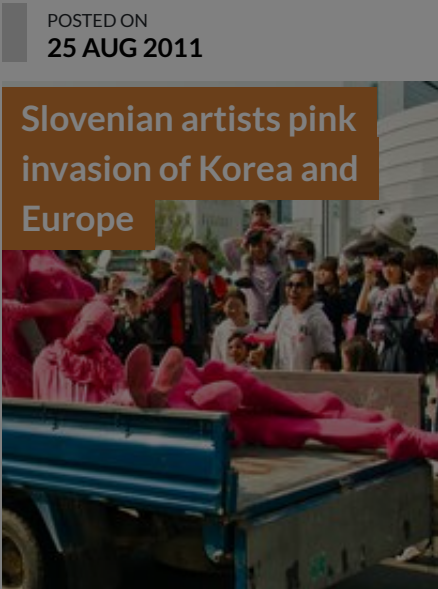

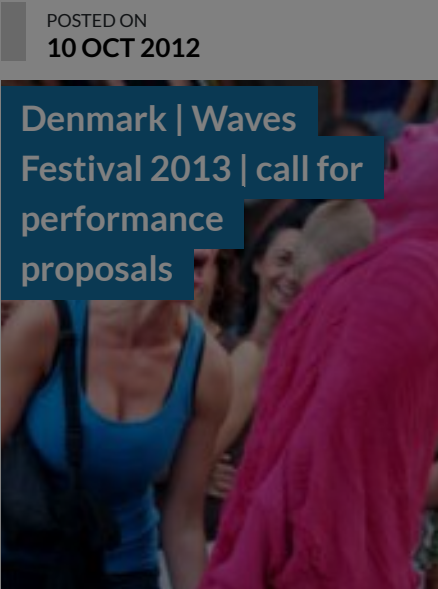

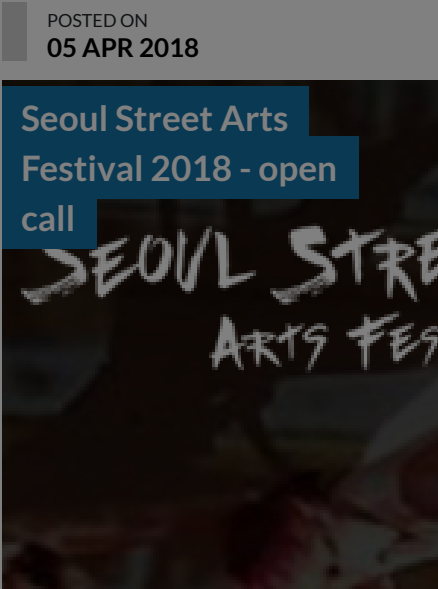

Winners Announcement: Selected winners will be contacted in person during March, 2012. For further information, please call the Festival Planning Team at 82-2-3290-7164.
