Nordic Artists' Centre Dale | open call for residencies

 Ute_01

Nordic Artists' Centre Dale / NKD is open for residency applications for 2015. NKD is an Artist-in-Residence centre funded by Norwegian Ministry Of Culture. The A-I-R program encourages international contacts for artists and focuses on visual arts including design, architecture and locally rooted practice.

Nordic Artists' Centre Dale is situated in the village of Dale, the administrative centre of the Fjaler municipality on the West Coast of Norway.

A.I.R Programme 2015

NKD has opened the application period for residency in 2015. Apply by submitting the filled application form and attached images of your work (see website)

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS: 11th of April 2014

Eligibility criteria

Professional artists, designers, architects and independent curators are eligible to apply.

The selection is based on artistic merits and the quality of artistic practice. Applicants from outside the Nordic region are expected to master the English language. The program is not available for students.

Details of residency

The residency at the Nordic Artists’ Centre includes a monthly grant of 8.000 NOK, living and working space, as well as support of travel expenses up to 5.500 NOK, which will be reimbursed on arrival.

Residency periods are 2 or 3 months.

The centre has five private residencies of various sizes for the selected artists, and five identical north-lit studios, each 50 m².

Artists’ houses are fully equipped, and provided with wireless internet access.
