conference - call for papers

NCCA

Call for Papers – Philippines National Commission on Culture and the Arts (NCCA) International Conference on Cultural Statistics and Creative Economy, to be held in Manila in October 2018.

The 2018 International Conference on Cultural Statistics and Creative Economy will exhibit the initiatives of neighboring Southeast Asian countries in their creative economies and their studies about statistical data on cultural studies.

Conference Goals

The goal of this conference is to provide a venue for researchers, cultural workers, and academics to enrich and enliven discussions and propositions about the emerging fields of cultural statistics and creative economy.

The first Conference on Cultural Statistics and Creative Economy was organised by the National Commission on Culture and the Arts (NCCA) in October 2017 to highlight and enrich the work on Philippine cultural statistics and creative economy, and discuss how this can be utilised in policy development. Case studies from the Philippines, the UK, and UNESCO were presented during the conference.

This 2018, the Conference will include case studies from neighbouring Southeast Asian countries on statistical data and research in the creative and cultural sectors. Topics include:
