Programme for artists from Germany

The Goethe-Institut China and the Department of Culture and Education of the Consulate General of the Federal Republic of Germany in Shanghai will initiate an art residency program in collaboration with the am art space in Shanghai in 2014. It is aimed at artists from the fields of visual art and performing art.

The residency program will be a two-month stay in May–June 2014. The participants can implement their China-related projects during the stay. In addition, the stay in Shanghai offers an opportunity to establish contacts with Chinese arts and cultural sector. The participants are asked to write a blog about their stay.

Range: Cultural workers from all sectors of the performing and visual arts are encouraged to apply.

Time: May–June 2014

Location: Shanghai

Organizers: Goethe-Institut China, Department of Culture and Education of the Consulate General of the Federal Republic of Germany in Shanghai

Benefits of the Program:

– Provision of a basic hotel in Shanghai for two months or alternatively 1,000 EUR for private accommodation

- Financing of international arrival and departure costs (flight)
- Living subsidies in the amount of 1,000 EUR per month
- Networking with the project creators and institutions of relevant projects through the network of the Goethe-Institute and the art space

An exhibition, presentation or performance as well as a publication are desired at the end of the residence time.

Applicants shall have professional experience in the above-mentioned fields and have their center of life in Germany.

Application documents

Applications shall be made in German and English and contain the following documents:

- Resume

With full contact details of your training, an overview of your current artistic career, and an introduction to your major work (at least five pieces).
