Arts and Cultural Management | call for papers

Asia-Pacific Journal of Arts and Cultural Management announces a call for papers with two 2012 deadlines - including a special issue on collaborative arts and cultural projects in the Asia Pacific region.

The Asia-Pacific Journal of Arts and Cultural Management is an online, open access, fully peer reviewed academic journal which has been published since 2003. The journal publishes articles that address arts and cultural management and cultural policy issues with an emphasis on research relevant to the Asia-Pacific region. Specific topics covered by the journal include cultural policy, arts funding and law, leadership, management marketing and organisational studies with specific relevance to the arts and cultural sector in the region. From 2012 onwards the journal will be hosted by the Arts and Cultural Management Program at the University of Melbourne.

We aim to publish two volumes annually: one an open edition and the other with a specific theme. In 2012 that theme is the management of arts and cultural collaborative projects across countries in the Asia-Pacific region.

Deadlines for consideration of papers: Open edition: Deadline: 31st March 2012.

Themed edition, Collaborative arts and cultural projects in the Asia Pacific region: Deadline: 31st July 2012

The journal will also include news and policy developments from around the Asia-Pacific region. We are looking to identify key contacts in the region to provide news and policy updates, so please get in touch if you would like to contribute to this section.
