World Music Expo | showcase applications open call

The Australasian World Music Expo (AWME) calls for proposals for its 5th Anniversary Edition, in Melbourne, Australia, 15-18 November 2012. AWME has established itself as the southern hemisphere's premier music industry conference and showcase event for Roots music.

Deadline: 20th April 2012.

The Australasian World Music Expo (AWME) presents music from Australia and the wider region to potential buyers across all areas of the industry from the local and international music market as well as provide the general public who attended the concerts with an opportunity to enjoy a specially curated program of musical and artistic excellence.

AWME has two distinct but very connected elements that include an industry development component and a general public festival programme.

The primary emphasis of the event is to provide a platform to foster stronger relationships with music industry associates both nationally and from around the globe that are specifically interested in product from this region.

Artist Showcase Applications for 2012 are OPEN

Showcase application criteria include:

- *Artists/applicants should be Export Ready.
