Pražský filharmonický sbor

The Prague Philharmonic Choir – Pražský filharmonický sbor, founded in 1934, is one of Europe's leading choral ensembles and has the longest uninterrupted history among Czech professional choirs. The Choir has built up a remarkably extensive discography. Its recordings are available on various labels. On one recording, the Prague Philharmonic Choir worked with the Czech Philharmonic Orchestra under the baton of its principal conductor, Jiří Bělohlávek.
