The 48 Hour Film Project comes to Delhi

 The 48 Hour Film Project comes to Delhi tentatively on the weekend of 16 - 18 August 2013. Filmmakers from all over the Delhi area will compete to see who can make the best short film in only 48 hours. The winning film will go up against films from around the world. The 48 Hour Film Project is a wild and sleepless weekend in which you and your team have a blast making a movie. All writing, shooting, editing and scoring must be completed in just 48 hours. On Friday night, you are assigned a character, a prop, a line of dialogue and a genre, that must be included in your movie. 48 hours later, you must submit your film. Next? Your masterpiece will show on the big screen of a local theater! In 2013 the 48HFP will visit more than 120 cities where more than 60,000 people will make short films. The Project has truly spread to the four corners of the globe as filmmakers from Asia, Australia, Europe, the Middle East, Africa and the Americas will compete to see who can make the best short film in a weekend. Space is limited. This year, teams will be accepted on a first come, first served basis. Once the initial registration is complete, we will add teams to a waiting list. Enter now!
