DutchCulture and the Netherlands Ministry of Foreign Affairs organize the third edition of Indonesia Now, a knowledge exchange and cooperation event for cultural operators, on Tuesday 12 November 2019 in Amsterdam.

Indonesia Now 2019

This sequel to previous successful Indonesia Now events in 2015 and 2017 will focus on future-oriented cooperation between Indonesia and the Netherlands. In so doing, the event will go beyond describing the close ties and existing examples of cooperation between the Netherlands and Indonesia. At Indonesia Now 2019, academics, civil society actors, policy makers, companies and artists will look into the future to explore possible avenues for cooperation between the countries in the years to come.

The conference will consist of a full-day programme. The morning and afternoon programme will both be kicked off by a plenary session. There will be three rounds of in total 15 different break-out sessions on cultural, political, economic, social and educational topics. Please note the programme may be subject to change.
