Asian Festival of Children's Content 2011

Mark your diary for the 2nd

Asian Festival of Children's Content, to be held in Singapore in May 2011. The first AFCC attracted 400 delegates from 17 countries and more than 300 members of the public. Experts from around the world will debate, discuss and chart new ways on how Asian content can be developed and presented in both print and new media to the children of the world. AFCC 2011 will be of special interest to writers, illustrators, publishers, editors, literary agents, technology experts, teachers, librarians and children's film and TV producers in Asia and other parts of the world.
