City of Lakes hosts its first International Film Festival

Come September 15th, the 1st

Udaipur International Film Festival will be inaugurated in Udaipur, Rajasthan. This would be the first time that a vast selection of 47 films from over 21 countries would be screened in the city over a period of two days. The festival will begin with a short film, titled 'Open Doors' and will end with a Bangladeshi film, 'Meherjaan'. The festival will screen feature films, animations, documentaries and short films. The festival also includes a seminar on the theme of '100 Years of Indian Cinema'.
