culture360 Media Partnership | Indonesian Dance Festival 2022

culture360.ASEF.org is delighted to be the media partner of Indonesian Dance Festival (IDF), which will take place from 22nd to 28th October at the Taman Ismail Marzuki and Komunitas Salihara in Jakarta, Indonesia.

Founded in 1992, IDF is an international biannual contemporary dance festival in Jakarta, under the auspices of Loka Tari Nusantara Foundation. It was founded by prominent dance figures affiliated with the Jakarta Institute of the Arts, as a incubator and presenting platform for Indonesia's young choreographers.

IDF is the longest running contemporary dance festival in Southeast Asia, and is the gateway for international colleagues to see works by Indonesian and Asian artists.

This year's IDF programme offers:

- Evening performances
- Kampana - A series of shows by 6 young Indonesian and South East Asian choreographers, which have been workshopped in a series of seminars under the guidance of IDF curators.
- Masterclass/Workshops
- Public Discussions

Festival Theme - Rasa: Beyond Bodies

RASA in bahasa Indonesia is a multifaceted word which means feeling, sensing, tasting. FEELING is a definite thing that we have, which includes empathy, sympathy, tolerance, mutual acceptance and understanding between human beings, between humans and the universe and the Creator. TASTE may not be expressed in words, instead it can be shown through gestures that go beyond the physical body in an effort to comprehend the current state of the world. RASA transcends beyond our physical bodies.

This theme is a response to our current socio-political reality, and the cultural situation that we are experiencing together in the national and global scope, especially in the post-pandemic situation.
