Germany | Cynetart Festival 2014

From November 13 - 19 the CYNETART festival is an invitation to diverse spaces, where we, together with musical birds, clever organised ants, performance artists, a virtual intelligence and a holographic avatar system, meet at the Festspielhaus Hellerau, Dresden. CYNET ART testifies to the life of intertwined species and shows options of connectivity with specifically designed perception architectures. The modelation of coexistence reflects our understanding of ourselves. Our demand for contact among each other and to other species, so it be purely energetic or mediated, is ongoing. As a central point in the Grand Hall of the Festspielhaus there will be to experience a fulldome hemisphere: an extra built large spherical segment as a temporary zone of art. Artists play encircling 360° hemisphere filling projections and surround sound and thus combine the latest technological possibilities with artistic practice. The self-built "Planetarium" is an area, in which the quest will be: plunge and immerse.
