Hong Kong | Museums and the Web 2013 | conference

Museums and the Web is the largest international conference devoted to art, science, and natural and cultural heritage content online. Since 1997 it has been designed by and for museum professionals to feature the best digital work from around the world and highlight the use of new technologies in the museum context. MWA2013 will be hosted in Hong Kong 9-12 December. The programme includes presentations by leading technologists and museum innovators from around the world.

Registration is open - earlybird rates till 31 August 2013 Since 1997 Museums and the Web has hosted 17 events for museum professionals in the USA and features annually the best and most ground-breaking digital work in museums around the world. Its proceedings, freely available online, represent one of the largest archives on digital innovation in the cultural sector, and serve as an important resource for professionals, students and others working with museums. In 2012 Museums and the Web hosted its first conference in Asia as a special session of NODEM at City University Hong Kong. The 2nd Annual Museums and the Web Asia conference will be held December 9-12, 2013 in Hong Kong, China at the Sheraton Hong Kong Hotel and Towers. MWA2013 will include presentations by leading technologists and museum innovators from Asia Pacific, North America, Europe, and the Middle East.
