LIVE! Singapore 2010 - A Global Performing Arts Exchange

LIVE! Singapore 2010 is a new international event for the global performance arts industry to be held at Resorts World Convention Centre, Singapore from 8 to 11 June 2010. LIVE! Singapore will bring together leading performing artists, practitioners, managers, producers, agents and executives of the live performing arts and entertainment industries in four days of intensive and inspiring meetings, break-out sessions and discussion panels and breath-taking live performances.

The aim of LIVE! Singapore is to provide a global platform where the exchange and birth of ideas and concepts will be fostered, business will be conducted and the performing arts and entertainment industry at large will have an opportunity to work and collaborate together to create exciting new projects and relationships that will help foster and ensure the continued growth of the live performing arts globally.

To facilitate a highly focused agenda and relevance among its participants, the LIVE! Conference will spotlight a selected genre annually. This year, the inaugural conference program will explore the world of music through three dedicated streams daily focusing on:

- Orchestral Music and Opera;
- Musical Theatre; and
- Jazz and World Music.
