On November 18, 2010, Octavia Modert, Minister of Culture and his Lithuanian counterpart, Arunas Gelunas, signed a cultural agreement in Brussels during the EU Council of Ministers of Culture, between the Government of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and the Government of the Republic of Lithuania on cooperation in the fields of Culture, Education, Higher Education, Science and Sport.

In these areas, the agreement will provide a legal basis for bilateral cooperation between the two countries and will encourage institutions and cultural organizations on both sides to cooperate more actively. This agreement will also create a cultural joint commission to establish an exchange program,

Digital China 2010: Berlin-Shanghai

On the occasion of the 40th anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relations between the People's Republic of China and the Federal Republic of Germany, the German-Chinese Commission for Cultural Cooperation (GCC) has launched the project 'Digital China 2010: Berlin-Shanghai'.

The project aims to promote cultural cooperation and dialogue between the two countries. It will focus on the digitalization of cultural heritage and the promotion of digital arts and culture. The project will also include a series of events and exhibitions in Berlin and Shanghai.

The project is supported by the German-Chinese Commission for Cultural Cooperation (GCC) and the German-Chinese Cultural Foundation (GCF). It is also supported by the German-Chinese Cultural Foundation (GCF) and the German-Chinese Cultural Foundation (GCF).
