Making as Living | Exhibition of the Great East Japan Earthquake Regeneration Support Action Project

One year following the Great East Japan Earthquake in Tohoku, 3331 Arts Chiyoda is organizing MAKING AS LIVING, an exhibition and a forum that highlight the various engagements undertaken by creators and activists. The exhibition consists of 15 filmed interviews of leading figures in the regeneration process as well as documents on the diverse activities of eighty artists, architects, designers, activists, companies, NPO's, and newspapers. Those individuals will also be present to discuss and reflect on the lessons learnt from the disaster, and their vision of Japan's future. FREE ADMISSION See full programme of events This event is organized by WA WA PROJECT, an online crowdsourcing platform and social network that connects individuals who are working toward the recovery efforts in the Tohoku region.
