#ArtSpeaksOut: call for short films for COP28

#ArtSpeaksOut, organised by ikonoTV (Germany) and Pluc.TV (India), has an open call for artists and filmmakers who are deeply passionate about ecology and sustainability to have their work shown at COP28, 30 November to 12 December 2023.

The selected films will be shown at Dubai Airport, an international stage where the work will have the potential to reach influential decision-makers. The organisers are looking for captivating short artistic films that communicate without the need for dialogue, films that are wholly focused on ecology.

The short films should be no longer than 30 minutes and submissions are welcome from all over the world.

Final works will be selected by the team with the help of the guest curators. Any project can be submitted, such as old or/and new productions, excerpts or raw footage from a documentary re-edited as contemplative video.
