ASSITEJ Magazine Online 2024

The ASSITEJ Magazine is calling for contributions on the theme of Regenerating: Embodying Vision, to be published from January 2024 until the opening of the Congress in May 2024.

ASSITEJ plans to create a magazine that communicates through images, film and text. This magazine calls for articles that envision the dramaturgy from numerous artistic perspectives. Some prompts might be:

- To embody our visions, what kinds of questions should we ask ourselves and the world around us?
- As a TYA artist or practitioner, how can you increase children's and young people's participation in this time of difficulties?
- How can we take action to regenerate the environment and society?
- What creative approaches can we employ to establish new connections with people worldwide, especially those whose voices are not heard, and bring them forward?
- How do you respond to the global call to challenge traditional methods of artistic creation and transition to new forms of artistic work?
- How can we support artists and theatres in conflict zones for their efforts to regenerate?

- How can theatre and performance for young people be utilized to bring about the changes we all aspire to see?
- What ideas can be explored to promote sustainable international exchange in the performing arts?

Articles should:

- Be between 500-700 words
- Include a title and the name of the author at the top, and a 25-word bio of the author at the end
- Submissions should be in English and the original language of the author
- Be accompanied by high quality photos (with correct credits), or it could be a video film less than 5 minutes with English subtitles, or a collection of photos and texts for a photo-essay style article
