CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

ARTISTS' PROGRAM 2019

The Space Studio will be open to public in January 2019 at Alembic City Campus, Baroda. It is offering a 3-month studio program to 6 artists who will work with the theme - City and its Architecture.

The Space Studios will open to the public in January 2019 in the Alembic City campus, Baroda, India. Space Studios is offering a 3-month residency to six visual artists (local and international) who will work with the city and architecture as their theme. During the period of the residency, artists will be encouraged to engage with elements of Baroda, ranging from nature to urbanisation and from people to cultures, to explore layers of the city through their works.

DEADLINE for Application: 15th January 2019

Residency Period: 1st February 2019 – 30th April 2019

THE SELECTED ARTISTS WILL RECEIVE:

- Studio Space for the residency period
- An honorary stipend
- Living space
- Curatorial mentorship
- Opportunities to meet and network with the local arts community
- Support for research and sourcing material and data

Please send your application (latest CV and 10 images of your work with description) to directorspacestudio@gmail.com with:

"Space Studio City Residency 2019 | YOUR NAME" in the subject line

About the Space:

The Alembic group has recently converted their old distillery plant into a creative space for the arts, which includes a museum, an exhibition area for contemporary art and the newly constructed ‘Space Studios’. The ‘Space Studios’ were developed with the idea to promote a space for development of ideas and experimentation in the field of visual art.
