Center Stage Korea - Korean arts presentation grants

Korea Arts Management Service is calling for proposals from global partners (presenting organisations) for the Center Stage Korea grants programme. International performing arts organisations who will present Korean dance, music and theatre on stage can apply.

Eligible projects:

- 1) A single festival or venue presenting a Korea Focus program
- 2) A tour arrangement featuring one or more Korean artists/groups with co-presenters in several different venues.

All projects must take place between February 2018 and December 2019

Awarded grants will be for part of the international travel and freight costs for the participating Korean artist/artist group and will be made directly to them.

Deadline for applications: 30 November 2017
