Individuals and Groups

Creative Australia

Creative Australia, the Australian Government's principal arts investment, development and advisory body, currently has the Arts Projects for Individuals and Groups grant programme open for applications from Australian resident practicing artists or arts professionals.

Eligible activities include

- professional skills development, including mentoring and residencies
- the creation of new work
- practice based research
- creative development
- experimentation
- collaborations and exchanges
- touring
- festivals
- productions

- exhibitions
- performances
- publishing
- recording
- promotion and marketing
- market development activity
- activities that creatively engage communities.

Activities can take place nationally, internationally, online, or in a combination of in-person and online.

Groups made up of Australian and international artists are able to apply, however, the contact person for group applications must be an Australian citizen or permanent resident.

Support

Funding of between 10,000 AUD and 50,000 AUD is available for a range of activities and projects, both national and international, across all arts practices.

Access costs are legitimate expenses and may be included in the application.
