Denmark | open call for International Sculpture Symposium at Assens Shipyard

 Assens3

Assens Arts Council in Denmark is currently organising the following event: International Sculpture Symposium at Assens Shipyard (14-26 September 2015) - international call is open to all professional sculptors working in the medium of iron.

Applications must be submitted electronically at the website.

Closing date for applications 01 February 2015.

Applicants will be notified by 15 March 2015 at the latest.

Assens Shipyard has generously put its wealth of workshop spaces, tools and materials at the disposal of the symposium, offering the best possible facilities for sculptors working with iron.

Assens Arts Council supports art in the Municipality of Assens through its advisory capacity and by organising events and activities such as symposium projects, initiatives for art in the public sphere and workshops.

Discipline: Iron sculpture

Number of participants: 6 iron sculptors (2 Danish and 4 international artists)

Location: Assens Shipyard

Drafts/sketches: Applicants are requested to include sketches of their planned works, including approximate measurements.

Tools: Applicants must include a list of the tools they will require for their project.

Materials: Materials will be supplied by Assens Shipyard to a maximum value of DKK 10,000 (incl. VAT) equating to approx. 1000 kg iron per participant.

NB: There is a wide variety of materials available at Assens Shipyard. Scrap iron will be freely available.

Practical qualifications: In principle, all artists will be expected to be capable of working unassisted. Other limited assistance of a practical nature will offered.

Assistants: To a limited degree, qualified assistants will be on hand to support the artists with their work.

Application form: An electronic application form can be found at the symposium's website.

Assens Arts Council consists of three professional artists, an architect, one associate has an art professional background, the head of culture for the Municipality of Assens, and a secretary.
