Evaluators for the Culture Moves Europe mobility scheme

Culture Moves Europe, the new mobility scheme funded by Creative Europe, is calling for expert evaluators. Selected evaluators will have a key role in the first permanent European mobility scheme for artists and cultural professionals.

Expert evaluators need to fulfil the following criteria

- Are minimum 18 years old
- Have experience in the following fields: music, literary translation, architecture, cultural heritage, design (including fashion design), visual arts and performing arts and other topics, such as cultural policy, cultural management etc.

- Previous experience as project evaluator will be considered as an asset
- Are legal residents in one of the countries that are part of the Creative Europe programme
- Are proficient in English
- Are flexible and available from 1–23 November 2022 and the first two weeks of every month from January 2022 to June 2023
- Are available for a two-hour training session in October 2022

Please note that evaluators will not be able to apply for the Culture Moves Europe grant.

Remuneration

The Culture Move Europe mobility scheme is offering 300 EUR per day for the evaluation work. This is based on a calculation of 25 applications per day and 12 EUR per evaluated project.
