Germany | Reflekt Residency 2024 for practitioners in visual and performing arts

Goethe-Institut Indonesia, Malaysia, the Philippines together with SAVVY Contemporary and TanzFaktur are calling for applications from artists, curators, and art practitioners working in visual arts and the performing arts who are based in Indonesia, Malaysia, the Philippines, and Timor-Leste for their three-month residency programme.

REFLEKT residency programme encourages the artists/curators/art practitioners in residence to expand their research, develop a concept/prototype, build a project, or create an artwork together with the hosting organisations and local communities. Ideally, after completing the residency, the residents would continue their work and present them in their city of origin with the local Goethe-Institut as a host.

This year, the programme offers in total four slots for artists, curators, and art practitioners to work and engage with respective art scene and public in Germany for three months with the following preferred hosts:

- SAVVY Contemporary (Berlin) | 2 September–29 November 2024
- TanzFaktur (Cologne) | 2 September–29 November 2024

The Goethe-Institut will cover the following:

- Airfare to Germany (return, economy class)
- Visa and travel expenses for visa appointment
- Travel insurance
- Accommodation
- Fee and daily costs of 3,000 EUR for the whole residency
- A subsidy for production/research 600 EUR
