Grant Program for International Organizations
Presenting Exhibitions of Korean Artists

GUIDELINES

Korea Arts Management (KAMS) announces a call open to international organisations planning to present exhibitions of Korean artists. Grants are available to support such exhibitions in order to introduce Korea's contemporary visual arts to an international audience and further international exchanges.

Full details are available on the KAMS website. Grant applications may be made by the eligible international art organisation or by the Korean artists. Collaborative programmes between international art organisations and Korean partners are also eligible. Grants will be awarded to the Korean partner or Korean artist.

To be eligible for this grant programme, the artworks MUST be available for SALE in the exhibition venue. Exhibitions must be held between April 2018 and December 2019.

Deadline for applications: 28 February 2018
