Applications are invited from artists (in any discipline) interested in working in a community-based context at Studio 468. Artists will be expected to work with community projects or groups in the Rialto area in exchange for studio space. Studio 468 is located in St Andrew's Community Centre, Rialto (home to a range of community and voluntary projects). A self-contained studio (non-residential) will be awarded to artists for residencies from February 2011.

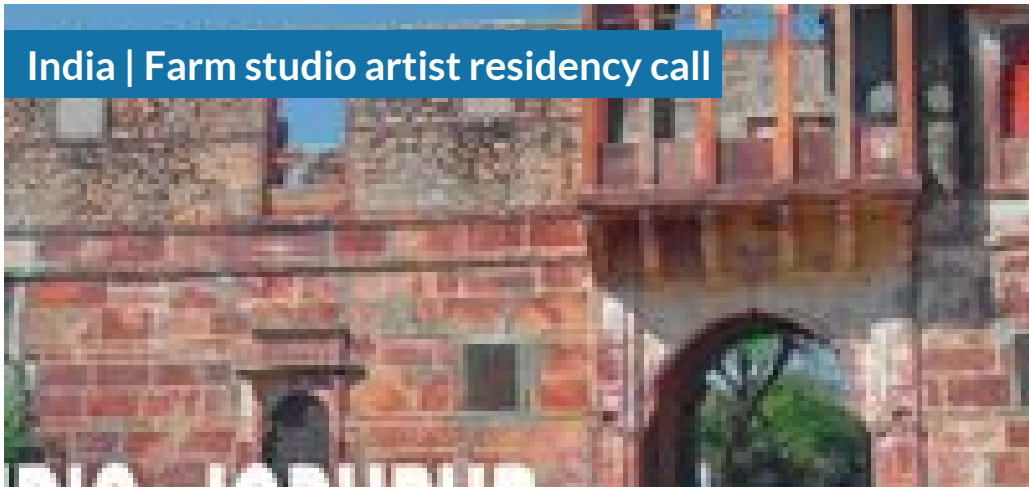

Common Ground is an arts development organisation based in Inchicore, Dublin. CommonGround believes that the arts can play a central role in transforming and empowering communities. It is committed to bringing professional artists and communities together on 'common ground'. Common Ground is revenue funded by the Arts Council.
