Japan | Short Shorts Film Festival and Asia 2023

Short Shorts Film Festival and Asia (SSFF & ASIA), an Academy Awards® accredited festival held in Tokyo, Japan, from 6 to 20 June 2023, is now calling for submissions for short films under 25 minutes.

SSFF & ASIA, established in 1999, is one of the largest international short film festivals in Asia, and every year more than 10,000 works are gathered from all over the world. Led by its official competition (Japan division, Asia international division, international division), the festival consists of various divisions and programs with diverse genres – from “environment,” to “tourism,” “CG animation,” “non-fiction” and more.

The categories are:

- International Competition
- Asia International Competition
- Japan Competition
- Non-Fiction Competition
- Animation Competition
- Cinematic Tokyo Competition
- Smartphone Film Competition supported by Sony's Xperia
- BRANDED SHORTS

There are awards for each category, with prize money ranging from 600,000 to 1,000,000 JPY. The winner of the Best Short awards in the Live-action Competition, Animation Competition well as the Non-Fiction Competition, will be eligible for nomination in the short film categories of the Academy Awards® the following year.
