Kunsthalle Bratislava | open call for exhibition proposals

 domkultura

Kunsthalle Bratislava in Slovakia | OPEN CALL FOR SUBMITTING EXHIBITION PROJECTS to be realized in 2014 in the space of the newly reconstructed Kunsthalle LAB in 2014.

Deadline for proposals: 28 February 2014

Kunsthalle LAB* is the part of the exhibition space of the nascent Kunsthalle Bratislava. The exhibition space of Kunsthalle LAB would like to present the most recent, overlapping manifestations of visual art. Preferred will be contextual projects with a clear and dense concept, perhaps even directly reacting on the site-specific situation of the gallery's location, or the opportunity of direct communication of contemporary art with the public space from behind the display windows of the LAB and its daily functioning.

Our ambition is preferentially

to present projects
/ of interactive character,
/ site-specific,
/ working with light and sound – mediating the sensory setting of the viewer, / reckoning with the participation of the viewer, collaborative, collective,
/ performative,
/ confronting in general the traditional perception of art as an exclusively 'artistic' discipline,
/ projects well and effectively communicating in the direction of the street's space and Bratislava's frequented square.

The opportunity to apply for the space of Kunsthalle LAB with an authorial project is for the time period May – December 2014. We will discuss the exact date of the exhibition with each selected artist individually.
