Long Way Home | Asia-Europe Short Story Contest

Online voting for Long Way Home: Asia-Europe Short Story Contest is now open until 1 September 2013 (23:59 Singapore SGT). This initiative led by the Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF) is in partnership with the Ubud Writers & Readers Festival.

The theme of the Asia-Europe Short Story Contest is travel. In this framework, what is expected from writers is not travel writing but creative writing that uses the theme travel as the premise for a short fiction. It is of particular interest for ASEF to receive stories that highlight Asian perceptions of Europe and vice-versa. This competition seeks stories that give new perspectives on local culture, identities, and traditions in the context of contemporary societies and environments.

The online short story contest aims to support emerging writers from ASEM member countries and unveil new talents in the literary field from both regions. It also seeks to highlight different perceptions of Asia and Europe through creative writing and enhance cultural understanding.
