Magic Oxygen Literary Prize

The Magic Oxygen Literary Prize is an international contest, open to writers around the world, submitting works in English under the categories of Short Stories and Poetry. There is a small entry fee, cash prizes for winning authors and a tree is planted in Kenya for every entry as part of the Word Forest initiative.

In its fourth year, yet again #MOLP had an incredible prize fund of £3,000, which will be awarded in each category as follows:

First Prize – £1,000

Second Prize – £300

Third Prize – £100

Two Highly Commended – £50

We also plant a tree for every single entry we receive in Boré, Kenya and we'll email you the GPS coordinates of it once the contest has closed and we've received confirmation of them from our Word Forest Coordinator.

Additionally, your entry will also help fund the construction of another much needed new classroom in the same community – click here to see the one our previous contests built.

All of this will be done via the newly formed charity The Word Forest Organisation, which was founded as a direct result of the Magic Oxygen Literary Prize
