The PhotoVogue Regional Open Call 2025 invites artists from regions within East and Southeast Asia, as well as members of their diasporas, to submit works across all genres in photography and video.

PhotoVogue is launching a Regional Open Call for photographers and video makers from countries in East and Southeast Asia (and their diaspora), including: Brunei Darussalam, Cambodia, Indonesia, Japan, Lao PDR, Malaysia, Mongolia, Philippines, Singapore, Korea, Thailand, and Viet Nam.

This initiative aims to discover and promote the most talented visual artists from these regions, providing them with opportunities to emerge and collaborate within the Condé Nast global network.

Eligibility

The call welcomes all genres—from fashion to documentary, art, and reportage—and invites submissions from those who express themselves through photography and/or video. It is open to anyone who identifies with the heritage of the countries mentioned in the application, whether based in the region or elsewhere in the world. Applicants must be at least 18 years old.

Award

A portfolio of the best submissions will be featured across Vogue's global network, with selected artists potentially collaborating on editorial projects. The most outstanding works will be displayed at the next edition of the PhotoVogue Festival. Additionally, three artists will receive the following grants:

- 4,500 USD – Outstanding Vision Grant
- 2,000 USD – Vision Grant
- 1,500 USD – Rising Voice Grant
