Colours of Ostrava

Colours of Ostrava is an international, multi-genre music festival organised annually in Ostrava since 2002. In 2012, the festival was moved to the surroundings of Dolní Vítkovice, an area that used to belong to metallurgical works, mines and ironworks. In its 19th year, the festival offered over 350 programme items on 19 open and covered stages – concerts, discussions, theatre performances, films, workshops as well as art activities.
