Situated on the O'Gorman family farm, Cow House Studios is a school and residency set in rural County Wexford, Ireland.

The long-term project of artists Rosie O'Gorman and Frank Abruzzese, 180 acres of pasture and forestry provide meaningful connections with the culture and landscape of the mountainside community while facilitating multidisciplinary practices for residency artists and students. Underpinning the programmes is a shared commitment to the enriched possibilities of cross-cultural learning and creative exchange.
