CULTURĂ în mișcare

Culture in Motion Association in Romania aims to create cultural projects to inspire action.

They promote the values of dialogue, tolerance, volunteering and cooperation, cultivate openness to diversity and multiculturalism, and human rights. They want their projects to contribute to building and crystallising the identity of the city and its citizens in order to facilitate the way forward.

Culture in Motion aims to become a source of inspiration for the community, a promoter of progress in the cultural field in Romania. They complement, enrich, diversify and develop cultural life in Romania by identifying and encouraging existing talent resources, and harnessing to the full potential of these and other cultural values available. Culture in Motion is based on creativity, innovation, professionalism.
