SoundCzech

Established in 2017 by ATI (Arts and Theatre Institute), SoundCzech is an organisation committed to supporting the Czech music scene. It is financed by the Ministry of Culture of the Czech Republic and works in close collaboration with dedicated industry professionals.

The main aim is to facilitate the growth and development of Czech music industry and to promote Czech music internationally.

Their objectives are the following:

- International promotion and support of Czech music
- Training and lectures for artists and business professionals
- Facilitating the connection of these trained professionals with international networks
- Improving the overall performance of Czech music scene
- Creating and maintaining the information platform about the Czech music. (see "useful contacts")

They support the following:

- Financial support (concerts and tours, educational courses, conferences among others)
- Organizing workshops, training and lectures
- Participating in music conferences and showcases
- Supporting Czech artists and other music professionals at conferences and showcases
